NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—

Edwin H. Harrison was elected director of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad today. He succeeds Charles Clark who resigned.

The street agreed that this is the most important bit of railroad news it had heard in a generation. Harrison is a well-known figure in the railroad world, having been elected to the position of president of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad in 1907.

With the talk of Harrison's coming, the stock market moved up. The New York Central stock advanced 1/2 cent to 129 1/2. The Hudson River stock advanced 1/4 cent to 129 1/4.

All street interests it is said that the election of Mr. Harrison was a relief to the public mind. It was felt that the railroad would be better managed under his leadership.

ACCUSE BANKER OF BIG THEFTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Evidence showing that three banking institutions were looted of $2,000,000 will, it is asserted, be introduced at the trial of William Gow, former director of the Borough bank, which began before supreme court Justice Crane in Brooklyn to-day.

Gow is specifically charged with the larceny of $145,000 from the Borough bank, but the prosecution contends that through financial operations in which he was interested the Borough bank, the International Trust Company and the

BATTLE STORY OF WIRELESS FLAT. COOPER

FIRST ACCOUNT OF LOGS IN BROOKLYN

TALK OF BINNS AND AMERICA GRINS

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—John R. Binns, the Marconi operator who stood at the post on the Republic and flashed forth the news that brought aid to the stricken liner, today told the story of his experiences from the moment he was hurled from his berth when the Florida reared her bow to the public last Saturday night at her arrival in New York harbor.

Here is Mr. Binns' narrative in his own words:

By JOHN R. BINNS.

Wireless Operator on the Republic

at the time of the collision.

I had just turned in for a few hours

after the previous day's work when the shock of the impact shook me out of my bed. A crushing, ripping noise followed and the Florida's bow crumpled up on the side of my cabin. The noise was so loud, it seemed as if the ship were being crushed. I was hurled into the air and fell to the deck. I was conscious of nothing but the pain

in my head and the sound of the ship's engines. I was lying on the deck when I heard the captain's voice. He was shouting for the crew to get up. I was the first to rise. I was on my feet in a few minutes. I was looking for the captain when I saw the Florida's
